مجلس القصيد الإماراتي - متعدد الوكلاء

The Emirati Multi-Agent Poetic Majlis

A multi-agent council that critiques Nabati poetry — without ever speaking in a deceased master's voice.

مجلس وكلاء يُقيِّم القصيد النبطي — دون أن يتقمَّص صوت شاعر راحل

One of the oldest living oral traditions in the Gulf — and it is at risk of falling silent

من أقدم التقاليد الشفهية الحية في الخليج — وهو مهدد بالصمت

An oral tradition is fragile

التقليد الشفهي هش

Nabati poetry lives in voices and majālis, not archives. Each master who passes takes unrecorded verse with them.

القصيد النبطي يعيش في الأصوات والمجالس لا في الأرشيف؛ وكلّ شاعرٍ يرحل يأخذ معه أبياتاً لم تُدوّن.

Younger generations are drifting away

الأجيال الجديدة تبتعد

The meters, diction, and depth of authentic Nabati feel out of reach to many young readers today.

انحسار حضور القصيد الأصيل، ومفرداتٌ باتت غريبة على الأجيال الجديدة.

Generic AI makes it worse

الذكاء الاصطناعي العام قاصر

LLMs hallucinate meters, conflate Nabati wazn with classical buḥūr, and miss the cultural context entirely.

تخلط النماذج اللغوية العامة بين الوزن النبطي وبحور الفصحى، وتغفل السياق الثقافي.

Our mission: keep this tradition heard — by listening, weighing, and teaching. Never by replacing the poet.

THE MĀJIDĪ VOICE

صوت المدرسة الماجدية

Measures the wazn, weighs the rhyme letter, tests every word against the Bedouin register.

"The defiance is licit — but does the diction earn its desert lineage?"

THE OUSHA VOICE

صوت مدرسة عوشة

Asks whether the feeling is earned — is "dead feelings" a true image, or decoration?

"Pride is easy. Show me the wound the pride is guarding."

THE ZAYED VOICE

صوت مدرسة زايد

Listens for steadfastness and cohesion — does the defiance bind the poet to his people?

"A proud bayt — but pride that stands alone serves no majlis."

The Critics hear each other: each may build on — or temper — the reading before it. A deliberation, not three monologues.

This is the experience. Everything else is infrastructure.

Our Critics speak about the masters. Never as them.

نقّادنا يتحدّثون عن الشعراء — لا بألسنتهم

✗ WHAT PERSONA AI DOES

- ✗ “Becomes” the historical figure and speaks in first person
- ✗ Invents words the person never said — with their name on it
- ✗ No sources, no provenance, no accountability to the family or the tradition

✓ WHAT THE MAJLIS DOES

- ✓ Speaks in third person, from each school's documented principles
- ✓ Quotes only attested verse — and cites where every line comes from
- ✓ Designed to be defensible to the families and institutions that hold these legacies

A deceased master's voice belongs to them, their family, and the tradition — not to a model.

It will never write a fake poem.

لا ابتكار للأبيات تحت أيّ ظرف

Where attested verses don't exist, the system says so — out loud.
No verse is ever generated and passed off as a master's. Not as a fallback, not as a demo, not once.

Traceable

قابلٌ للتعقّب

Every quoted verse carries its source:
manuscript, folio, retrieval date — all visible.

Labelled

مُعَلَّم

Every AI output is marked “Inspired by [Poet]
— AI Assisted.” Always visible, never hidden.

Private

خصوصيّة محفوظة

Private submissions stay private. The system never trains on a poet's unpublished work.

If a verse appears in the Majlis, it existed before the Majlis.

HOW IT WAS MADE

Curated and translated by hand

Each of the 80 verses was selected, transcribed, translated, and tagged for genre, emotion, and imagery — manually, not scraped.

Provenance recorded per verse

Every verse carries its source, audio alignment, and attribution chain. The Ousha corpus is verified against DCT publications.

Shaped with heritage experts

The Critic personas and corpus choices were shaped through conversations with heritage specialists and practitioners of the tradition.

The curation is the contribution. The code exists to serve it.
